Re: AT&T Corp. Petition for Declaratory Ruling Regarding Enhanced Prepaid Card Services, WC Docket No. 03-133

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Yesterday Robert Quinn, David Lawson and I, all representing AT&T, met with Scott Bergmann, Legal Advisor to Commissioner Adelstein, to discuss issues pertaining to AT&T's petition for declaratory ruling regarding enhanced prepaid card services. In particular, we discussed the chronology of AT&T's Enhanced Prepaid Card service before the Commission, including the adjustments made to AT&T's Cost Allocation Manual, to accommodate the introduction of this service in 1994. In addition, we also discussed AT&T's reasonable and continued reliance on FCC precedent in concluding that its prepaid service was both an interstate and information service. Finally, we reiterated that applying a retroactive ruling on the issue would inhibit or forestall investment in these and other new information service technologies coming to market, including VoIP. The arguments made were consistent with AT&T's written submissions in the above-referenced proceeding.

One electronic copy of this Notice is being submitted to the Secretary of the FCC in accordance with Section 1.1206 of the Commission's rules.

Sincerely,
